

Rebas Café & Gallery

Your Neighborhood Café....

Art, "Live at Rebas" Events....AND The World Cup Final Party...

Mirror Stories

A Group Exhibition of Narrative Paintings by members of Creative Works Studio

July 6-31 2010

Artist Reception Wed. July 14 6:00-9:00

The Creative Works Studio offers healing and recovery through the arts. The studio provides an oasis from the daily rigors and challenges of life for people living with long-term mental illness or addiction.

The studio believes in public education to reduce stigmatization. This program is a St. Michaels Hospital Inner City Health Program in partnership with the Good Shepard Non-profit Homes.

www.creativeworksstudio.ca

Upcoming Exhibitions

August

"New Works"

Paintings & Prints
by David Crighton

September

"The Junction"

Photographs by Shelly Jones

October

"Tandem III"

Paintings by
Ulla-Britt & Gord Cole

November

"New Works"

Photographs
Ivan Kendi

Live at Rebas

Thursday July 8 7-10

"Anis Ziemuks & Friends"

Poetry of love & luck evolve into songs, emotionally arresting, astute & deftly crafted into lyrical snapshots that linger. PWYC

Thursday July 15 7-10

"Comedian David Cornel"

A whimsical look at the world around us. Be prepared to laugh! PWYC

Thursday July 22 7-10

"Just Us Band" They return with entertaining music featuring folk, country & a real twist of rock & roll. PWYC

Tuesday July 27 7-10

"Singer/Songwriter Tim Harwill~The 12-String Troubadour"

On a cross-Canada tour promoting his most recent CD. His genre combines Roots, American and a liberal sprinkling of OUTLAW. PWYC

Sunday July 11 12-5

"THE WORLD CUP FINAL" It's a Party at Rebas.

See the match on Rebas big screen. Enjoy our special BBQ and a little World Cup "good cheer".

Sunday July 18 1-4

"HOTCHA"

Fresh back from NXNE this high energy duo plays old-time music, country & roots tunes. "Dust Bowl Roots: Songs from the New Depression" is their debut CD. PWYC

Sunday July 25 1-4

"Mark Rip Singer/Songwriter"

A veteran of the Toronto Roots Community, his new CD is described as bold, strong & relevant. PWYC

Thursday July 29 7-10

"Singer/Songwriter John Dorsey with Paul Burton"

Words that matter, melodies that work. Folk, roots originals & carefully chosen covers with just the right amount of backup. PWYC

Saturday July 10 1-4

Deedra Hartley is an "Alternative" Life Coach. She coaches through intuition and the use of Tarot & Astrology.

A session at Rebas starts at $20 for 20 minutes. An enlightening experience, Deedra will see you on a first come first served basis.

Her website is www.the-aurelian.com

Visit our website for the announcement of more music events www.rebascafe.com

For a great blog on Rebas visit www.blogto.com/cafes/rebas

In the Works... More Live Music Scheduling, Children's Events, Film and more. Keep us in touch with your comments & suggestions and we will keep you informed as programming develops.

See Snap's Calendar

Lots of Pictures Lots of listings & we're there too!

Rebas Café & Gallery

3289 Dundas St. W. (just east of Runnymede)

416.626.7372

Tues-Fri. 8:30-6:00 Sat.-Sun. 9:00-5:00

www.RebasCafe.com